Brandon Maye INSPIRATIONS

You're GUARANTEED Life-Changing Results!

BIOGRAPHY

Brandon Maye began his life journey with numerous frustrations and hurdles to overcome. He started from humble beginnings and even stood on the threshold of his NFL dream with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Brandon beat insurmountable odds obtaining both an undergraduate and graduate degree, coming from a family where there were more high school drop outs than graduates. Brandon rose above the standard in his family and achieved a full education, overcame being an underrated NCAA football prospect and debilitating Achilles reconstructive surgery, and fulfilled his dreams of being an NCAA All-American, academic All-American, published author, national motivational speaker and successful entrepreneur.

Public speaking has become Brandon's passion. He draws his messages from personal life experiences of disappointments, setbacks, triumphs, and tragedy to relate to a vast audience. Brandon's life is an 'open book' during his speeches, allowing for those listening to reflect and learn. He produces dynamic, challenging, and empowering messages to share with his audiences. Once you have heard Brandon deliver his message you will leave with a better understanding of self worth, power, and authority, creating a clear path to success.

What others are saying ...

"What an awesome job that Brandon Maye did speaking to our football team. To be honest it's a message that everybody should hear, not just football teams. He talks about activating greatness in your life and has some great points on how to do that. He talks a lot about his words of motivation, inspiration, and desperation. It was a very, very powerful meeting. The players got a lot out of it. I got a lot out of it that I can use to be a better coach, parent, and husband; and I know you would too. Whether it's a school, business, or whatever. I definitely encourage you to take the opportunity, bring Brandon Maye in, because he is going to inspire you and help you, your team, or your company...to activate the greatness that's inside them."

Dabo Swinney, Head Coach
Clemson University Football Team

"Brandon has a message that every single person on this earth should hear. When you listen to him it is obvious it comes from the heart. There is no fabrication, just passion. I'm a better man after listening to Brandon Maye."

Marcus Lattimore
Marcus Lattimore Foundation & Former NFL Player

"He is a true man of God. Man of character. Man on a mission. His message to our staff was so uplifting. He did a wonderful job of researching and giving us a tailored message that was to think of the challenges that we face as a company. My staff was basically in tears afterwards saying this was one of the most significant experiences in their life. He is one of a kind. You will never find another Motivational Speaker who brings it from the heart like Brandon Maye."

SPORTS GURU

PARTIAL SPEAKING TOPICS

- Best Is The Standard – Athletes will be challenged to put forth their maximum efforts in the classroom, on the field, and in life...each and every time! Good is no longer good enough!
- One Heartbeat – Athletes leave each presentation understanding the importance of teamwork. Commitment to success is key and success will come when each member of the team commits to that common goal.
- Process Over Prize – Athletes are goal driven individuals. When a personal goal is met performance may dwindle. With no vision or purpose athletes become burnt out and lose their drive. Brandon ensures that athletes leave each presentation with new fire and passion for what they love most.

Brandon's keynote presentations have become highly demanded after speaking to the Clemson University Football Team before their undefeated 2015 season and #1 NCAA College Football ranking.

- Go Pro In Life – Brandon understands the struggles that athletes face when their sports careers have come to a close. Brandon's presentations equip athletes with the tools necessary to transition smoothly into their careers.

EDUCATION

Go To School > Stay In School > Engage In The Process

PARTIAL SPEAKING TOPICS

- Unlock Your Future – Students will be hungrier than ever in the classroom! Students will be shown the endless possibilities that an education will give them. Their dreams become more of a reality after each presentation!
- Outsider – Society has created an illusion that rock stars, sports heroes, and television stars are the true measure of success. Students idolize the material things in life and Brandon challenges his listeners to let their own light shine, to stand out, and be different. Students leave with a new level of confidence, purpose, and determination to explore what they are truly capable of achieving.

EXECUTIVE COACHING AND LEADERSHIP

Brandon's success has given him the upper hand to aid companies in outperforming, out selling, and out lasting the competition.

PARTIAL SPEAKING TOPICS

- Be Legendary – Average is no longer an option. Employees no longer will view their job as just a job. Everyday is a new day and everyday employees will show up with a winning mindset. Brandon will help create a positive competitive atmosphere for your employees to foster increased performance and teamwork.
- You Are Valuable – Would you like your staff to know their worth and value to the success of the company? Many employees struggle to see their value in a large workplace. Brandon ensures his audience will return to their jobs knowing that their particular position is a valuable part of the team and company as a whole.
- How Are You Built? – Brandon understands that work comes easy when the going is good. However, what about when adversity strikes? After Brandon delivers his messages employees will be resilient during rough times and come out on top.

Prepare your team, students, or employees for change! Every message is tailored to fit the needs of each audience. Brandon uses a keynote presentation to accompany his speeches, provide a visual aid, and enhance his messages.
